

November 12, 2002

Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to recommend the professional services Discovery Consulting, Inc. provided to Group One Communications, Inc.

We are very impressed with the firm's representative, Mr. Darren Richardson. He represents his employer in a professional and desirable manner. Mr. Richardson has shown us outstanding business ethics, great communication skills, as well as exceptional results.

To date, Discovering Consulting, Inc. has considerably reduced our company's telephone expense. Inappropriate charges from long distance companies were investigated and disputed. Existing phone lines were individually analyzed and rated to justify appropriate usage. Upon determination of existing usage, lines in question were deleted resulting in significant savings.

Their professionalism is demonstrated throughout the entire service process.

I am delighted to make the recommendation of this company to other businesses, and will be pleased to talk with potential clients of Discovery Consulting, Inc. about the experience Group One Communications, Inc. has enjoyed with this commendable firm.

Sincerely,

Maggie Hale Controller

MH/ch

We as a GROUP can do more than any ONE of us can do alone.